(the “Assignee”).

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, Assignor is indebted to various persons and other entities and is unable to pay its debts in full and is desirous of transferring its property, pursuant to section 2, in trust to an assignee for the benefit of its creditors so that the property so transferred may be expeditiously liquidated and the proceeds thereof be fairly distributed to Assignor’s creditors without any preference of priority, except as set forth in section 6(j) or as permitted or required by applicable law;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of Assignor’s existing indebtedness to its creditors, the express undertakings of Assignee and the mutual covenants contained herein, it is hereby AGREED:

1. Transfer of Assets. Assignor does hereby grant, convey, assign, transfer and set over to Assignee, and directs every person or entity served with a copy of this Agreement to deliver to Assignee, any and all of Assignor's rights, title and interest in property, whether real or personal, tangible or intangible, or otherwise, wherever situated and by whomever held, which are now, or ever have been, used in connection with the operation of Assignor's business (the "Assignment Estate"). The Assignment Estate shall include, without limitation, cash on hand; bonds; deposits; bank and brokerage accounts; accounts receivable; customer lists; furniture, fixtures and equipment; leases, leasehold interests and leasehold improvements, subject to Assignee's right to abandon such leasehold interest(s) without liability to Assignee in accordance with applicable law; inventory, insurance premium and/or policy refunds; general intangibles; copyrights, licenses, patents, trade names, trademarks, franchises, service marks or other intellectual property; social media sites or accounts; URLs; refunds or abatements of all excess taxes heretofore or hereafter assessed against or collected from any federal, state, local or other taxing authority; claims against third parties and other causes of action; proceeds, products, offsprings, rents, or profits of or from any of the aforementioned assets; and any interest in property that Assignor acquires after the execution of this Agreement. Title to the Assignment Estate shall immediately vest in Assignee for the use and purpose set forth herein.

2. Leases and Leasehold Interests. The Assignment Estate includes all leases and leasehold interests in any asset of Assignor; however should Assignee determine that said lease or leasehold interest is of no value to the estate, then said interest is thereby relinquished without further liability or obligation to Assignee.

3. Collective Bargaining Agreements. Any agreement between Assignor and any labor union remains in force as between Assignor and the respective Union; however, Assignee is not bound to the terms of said contract unless Assignee specifically so agrees in writing at the time of the Assignee's acceptance of this Assignment.

4. Forwarding of Mail. Assignor authorizes the forwarding of its mail by the U.S. Postal Service as directed by Assignee.

5. Delivery of Documents; Endorsements. Assignor agrees to deliver to Assignee all books and records, to execute and/or deliver all additional necessary documents immediately upon request by Assignee, and to endorse all indicia of ownership where required by Assignee in order to complete the transfer of assets to Assignee as set forth in section 1.

6. Powers and Duties of Assignee. Assignee shall have the following powers, rights and duties:

(a) To collect any and all accounts receivable owing to Assignor.

(b) To sell, abandon or otherwise dispose of the Assignment Estate in a manner that Assignee, in the exercise of its business judgment, deems appropriate and to execute any and all documents, including, but not limited to, bills of sale, necessary to effectuate such dispositions of the Assignment Estate and to convey title to same.

(c) To secure funding necessary to administer the Assignment Estate property, including but not limited to borrowing monies and pledging unencumbered Assignment Estate assets to secure repayment of any such advance.

(d) To enter into agreements with creditors with liens on the Assignment Estate wherein the secured creditor consents to the use of its collateral and subordinates its lien(s) to Assignee's use of its collateral.

(e) To employ attorneys, accountants, auctioneers and such other professionals (the “Assignee’s Professionals”) to the extent reasonable and necessary to the administration of the Assignment Estate.

(f) To require all creditors asserting claims against Assignor to submit verified statements of their accounts.

(g) To settle any and all claims against or in favor of Assignor, with full power to compromise such claims, and to sue or be sued, and to prosecute or defend any claim or claims of any nature whatsoever existing against or in favor of Assignor.

(h) To open bank accounts in the name of Assignee or its nominees or agents and to deposit assigned assets or the proceeds thereof in such bank accounts and to draw checks thereon and with the further power and authority to do such acts and execute such papers and documents in connection with this Agreement as Assignee in the exercise of its business judgment deems necessary or advisable.

(i) To conduct the business of Assignor, should Assignee in the exercise of its business judgment deems necessary or advisable.

(j) To distribute the proceeds of Assignment Estate:

(i) First, to satisfy all indebtedness secured by a lien on any of said property in order of priority, and any indebtedness which under the law is entitled to priority of payment and to reimburse Assignee as to all costs advanced by Assignee or any third party for the preservation of the Assignment Estate’s assets, including the maintenance and insurance of said assets and the expenses of any operation of Assignor or indemnification of Assignee;

(ii) Second, all costs for the preservation of the Assignment Estate, including the maintenance and insurance thereon, the expenses of any operation of Assignor's business at Assignee's sole discretion, and such other administrative expenses as may be reasonably incurred;

(iii) Third, all costs and expenses incidental to the administration of the Assignment Estate, including the remuneration of Assignee and the payment of reasonable compensation for the services of the Assignee's Professionals. These costs and expenses shall include those incidental to the preparation and execution of this Agreement;

(iv) Fourth, to the extent that such debts are entitled to priority payments under applicable law, all debts owing to any agency of the United States of America as of the date of this Agreement, including, but not limited to, federal withholding tax, federal unemployment tax and other federal income, excise, property and employment taxes pursuant to 31 U.S.C. Section 3713;

(v) Fifth, to the extent that such debts are entitled to priority payment under applicable law, all debts owing to the state as of the date of this Agreement, including, but not limited to, state employment, property and income taxes and any applicable foreign state tax obligations;

(vi) Sixth, all other debts owing as of the date of this Agreement that are entitled to priority treatment and payment under applicable law;

(vii) Seventh, with the exception of those classes set forth above, all distributions to other creditors shall be, within each class, pro rata in accordance with the terms of each creditor's indebtedness, until all such debts are paid in full. Assignee shall make interim distributions whenever Assignee determines, in its reasonable discretion, that Assignee has accumulated sufficient funds (less any reserves Assignee deems appropriate) to enable it to make a reasonable distribution; and (viii) Eighth, the surplus, if any, of the Assignment Estate's funds, when all debts of the Assignment Estate shall have been paid in full, shall be paid and transferred by Assignee to Assignor's members in accordance with the terms of Assignor's operating agreement; provided, however, that to the extent applicable law requires payment of certain claims or class of claims in a priority other than as set forth above, such claims shall be paid in accordance with applicable law, and not in the priority set forth above.

(k) To report to the court in accordance with applicable law the results of the Assignee's efforts in administering the assets in the Assignment Estate.

(l) To file any and all tax returns, including, without limitation, final state and federal tax returns, for Assignor. Assignor shall have the right to review, amend, revise, approve, and sign all state and federal tax returns.

(m) To do and perform any and all other acts necessary and proper for the orderly liquidation or other disposition of the Assignee Estate, including, but not limited to, abandonment of the assets and property of Assignor and the distribution of the proceeds derived therefrom to the creditors of Assignor.

7. Rights of Creditors. All rights and remedies of the creditors against any surety or sureties for Assignor are hereby expressly reserved and nothing herein shall prevent any creditor of the Assignor from exercising its rights against third parties or persons who may be liable to any of the creditors for all or any part of their claims against Assignor, or from enforcing or otherwise obtaining the full benefit of any mortgage, charge, pledge, lien or other security which they now hold on any property, creditors or effects of Assignor.

8. Liability of Assignee. It is understood and agreed that neither Assignee nor any of its members, affiliates or professionals, nor any employees, officers, agents or representatives of Assignee, its members, its affiliates or its professionals, will assume any personal liability or responsibility for any acts of Assignee herein, but its obligation shall be limited to the performance of the terms and conditions of this Agreement in good faith and in the exercise of its business judgment. Assignee shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Assignment Estate for any claims, losses or liabilities brought by any party against Assignee, its members or affiliates, and/or any employees, officers, agents or representatives of Assignee, its members or its affiliates (“Indemnitees”) for any acts or omissions of the Indemnitees, except where it is determined by a final order of a court of competent jurisdiction that the indemnitees’ conduct constitutes gross negligence or willful misconduct.

9. Warranties of Assignor. Assignor hereby warrants as follows:

(a) The list of creditors delivered concurrently herewith to Assignee is full, true and correct to the best of its knowledge, information and belief as to names of said creditors, their addresses and the amounts due them.

(b) The list of assets, their respective locations and values delivered concurrently herewith to Assignee is full, true and correct to the best of its knowledge, information and belief.

(c) Assignor has terminated or, prior to its execution of this Agreement, will terminate any and all of its employees, including Assignor's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer.

(d) Assignor, through its duly authorized representatives, shall perform any and all acts reasonably necessary and proper to assist Assignee in the orderly liquidation of Assignor's assets and the collection of monies owing to Assignor, and in the distribution of said monies and the proceeds of asset sales to Assignor's creditors; provided, however, the Assignor's duly authorized representatives shall only provide such assistance to Assignee to the extent, and on the condition that, they are reasonably compensated for such services.

10. Power of Attorney. Assignor hereby grants Assignee a general power of attorney, which power of attorney specifically includes the right of Assignee to prosecute any action in the name of Assignor as Attorney in Fact. Further, on the date this Agreement is accepted by Assignee, Assignee shall succeed to all of the rights and privileges of Assignor, including any attorney-client privilege, in respect to any potential or actual claims, cases, controversies, causes of action, etc., and shall be deemed to be a representative of Assignor with respect to all such potential or actual claims, cases, controversies, causes of action, etc.

11. Acceptance by Assignee. By execution of this Agreement, Assignee does hereby accept the Assignment Estate herein created and agrees to faithfully perform its duties according to the best of Assignee's skill, knowledge and ability. Assignee shall receive reasonable compensation for its services in connection with this Agreement in the amount of $100,000.00 payable upon the Assignee's acceptance of this Agreement plus three percent (3%) of the gross proceeds realized by the Assignee in carrying out its rights and obligations under this Agreement; provided, however, that no amount of such gross proceeds shall be payable to the Assignee until the Assignor's first lien debt is fully and finally satisfied. Reasonable compensation does not replace or subsume the reimbursement of all Assignee's expenses incurred as a result of the administration of the Assignment Estate from the proceeds generated therefrom.
